NOTICE

Effective January 1, 2017, pursuant to Assembly Bill 1974:

Re-recording (Govt- 27201(c)(1) – 27201(c)(2))

Documents submitted for re-recording, will need to meet the following requirements to avoid rejection:

Each instrument, paper, or notice that is submitted for rerecording shall be executed and acknowledged or verified as a new document, in addition to any previous execution and acknowledgment or verification, unless the following apply:

- the instrument, paper, or notice is otherwise exempted by Section 27287 or any other law.
- the instrument, paper, or notice is presented solely to correct a recording sequence.
- the instrument, paper, or notice is presented solely to make a minor correction with a “Minor Correction Affidavit”.

The affidavit must satisfy the following:

1. Be attached to the original recorded instrument, paper, or notice.
2. Indicate the information that is being corrected.
3. Certified by the party completing the affidavit under penalty of perjury.
4. Be acknowledged the party/applicant pursuant to Section 27287.

A “Minor Correction” is further defined to include any of the following:

- An incorrect or missing address of the party to which the instrument, paper, or notice is to be returned following recording pursuant to Section 27361.6.
- A clarification of illegible text pursuant to Section 27361.7.
- An incorrect or missing printed or typed name of an individual or entity at the signature line pursuant to Section 27280.5.
- An incorrect or missing documentary transfer tax amount due pursuant to Section 11932 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

Each rerecording shall include a cover page that complies with Section 27361.6 and shall state the reason for rerecording.

This requirement has been made in accordance with the legislative amendment of Government Code section 27201.
